

Inquiry Report Structure

Quick Checklist | Module 8 – POSH Trainer Toolkit

HOW TO USE Use this checklist when reviewing or preparing the structure of an inquiry report. Tick each item once it has been addressed. The report should reflect the actual process and evidence in the case; unnecessary personal information should not be added merely to complete a template.

A. CASE & COMMITTEE DETAILS

✓	Check	Notes
☐	Case / reference number (where used)
☐	Names/designations of the parties as required for the confidential report
☐	Relevant employment / reporting relationship details
☐	Names/designations of IC members involved
☐	Date complaint was received
☐	Date complaint/material was shared with respondent
☐	Date inquiry was completed / report prepared

B. ALLEGATIONS & JURISDICTION

✓	Check	Notes
☐	Each allegation stated clearly and separately
☐	Relevant dates, places and context
☐	Workplace / POSH applicability considered
☐	Any jurisdiction or limitation issue recorded

C. PROCESS FOLLOWED

✓	Check	Notes
☐	How the complaint was received and acknowledged
☐	Respondent response and material received
☐	Conciliation details, if requested/applicable
☐	Interim measures, if any
☐	Inquiry meetings / hearings and attendance
☐	Procedural opportunities provided to both parties
☐	Natural justice / conflict-of-interest considerations

D. WITNESSES & EVIDENCE

✓	Check	Notes
☐	Witnesses considered and relevant statements
☐	Documents, emails, chats, records or other evidence considered

- | | |
|--------------------------|--|
| ☐ | Relevant circumstantial evidence, if any |
| ☐ | Material contradictions / corroboration identified |
| ☐ | Chronology of relevant events established |

E. ANALYSIS & FINDINGS

✓	Check	Notes
☐	Each allegation analysed against relevant evidence
☐	Applicable legal / policy provision identified where needed
☐	Reasons stated clearly for each finding
☐	Findings distinguish fact/evidence from assumption
☐	Outcome for each allegation recorded clearly

F. RECOMMENDATIONS

✓	Check	Notes
☐	Recommendation linked to the findings
☐	Where complaint is not upheld, no-action recommendation recorded as appropriate
☐	Where complaint is upheld, action/recommendation aligned with applicable rules/policy
☐	Compensation considerations addressed where relevant
☐	Any rehabilitation / workplace support recommendation recorded where appropriate

G. FINALISATION & CONFIDENTIALITY

✓	Check	Notes
☐	Report notes confidentiality requirements
☐	Report distribution / availability recorded as required
☐	Reasons for recommendations documented
☐	Any conflict/personal interest declaration considered where used
☐	Report signed / authenticated by participating IC members

QUALITY CHECK Before finalising, ask: Does the report show what was alleged, how the process was conducted, what evidence was considered, why the IC reached each finding, and how each recommendation follows from those findings? The reasoning should be understandable from the report itself.
